PRINCE JESSE GRANT.

Windsor Casale.

New York World. After many days a version which we believe to be absolutely authentic reaches us from England of the part played by the youthful Mr. Jesse Grant in the ex-presidential visit of his parents to Windsor Castle. Among all the amusing and grotesque accounts of the little episode which have already seen the light, no one perhaps has quite matched the truth. It seems that when the youth, who had been expected to accompany his ciders, arrived at the abode of royality, he was received by an equerry, who politely provided a place for is assest caused by derangement of the 1942 and bowels.

The symptoms of Liver Complaint are a bitter or bad taste in the mouth; Pain in the back. Sides or Joints, often mistaken for rheumatiam; some stomach, loss of appetite, bowels altermately costive and lax meadache, loss of memory, with a painful sensation of having failed to do something which ought to have been dine, debility, low spirits, a thick yellow appearance of the skin and eyes, a dry cough often mistaken for consumption.

Some lines many of these symptoms attend the disease, at others very lew, but the liver, the largest organ in the body, is generally the seaf of diseases and if not regulated in time, great suffering, wretchedness and DEATH will ensure the learned that he would be expected to hand in to dinner a lady who in all Engsuffering, wretchedness and DEATH will ensure the learned that he longest train least twice the length of the longest train. least twice the length of the longest train ever meditated by Worth, of his own simter, now the wise of a British commoner theire of Master Jesse cooled and he graclously submitted to his fate. As is the custom in the awful abodes of royality, the household circle after dinner joined the royal circle in the drawing-room. Perceiving that his venerated father was conversing with the majesty of England, the still aspiring youth calmly walked up, and nudging his sire, gracefully observed:

A COMPLAISANT WIFE.

How she Carries Out Her Dying Husband's Request. Cincinnati Times.

Some time since a very prominent and wealthy citizen was taken suddenly and seriously ill. The family physician was called in, and he at once intormed the sick man that he could not probably live more than forty eight hours at the outside, and if he have my worldly matters to attend to, Contains four medical elements, never found in the same happy proportion in any other preparation, viz: a gentle Cathartic, a powerful tonic, a unexceptirnable alternitive and a certain Corrective of all impurities of the body. Such signal success has attended its out at it is now regarded as the never the sooner the better. A well-known law-The sick man showed by his actions the there was some heavy burden upon his mind, some dreadful secret which he did not want to carry to the grave with h m, so at a signal all but the heart-b oken wife and attorney were requested to withdraw ,rom the room, and when alone the dying man related how a certain young lady of - street had been the recipient of his favors and caresses for years, and that as a last resort he desired her to receive the sum of ten thousand dollars as a token of his respect. The wile, who had always considered her husband the most loyal of men, to be trusted at all times and before al others, was at first astounded, speechlessbut finally recovered from her surprise, and promised to obey the wish to the letter. The husband died the next day, had a magnificent funeral, and on last Monday the widow called at the residence of her deceased husband's mistress and paid the ten thousand dollars, to the supprise and delight of the frail creature.

By an immense practice, extending through a period of years, having within that time treated many thousand cases of those diseases peculiar to woman. I have been enabled to perfect a most potent and agreeable medicine that meeta the indications presented by that class of dis-cases with positive certainty and exactness. To designate this natural specific compound. I have named it

Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription.

The term, however, is but a feeble expression of my high appreciation of its value, based upon my own personal observation. As a close observer, I have, while witnessing its positive results in the few special diseases inclinet to the separate organism of woman, singled it out as the climax or crowning gem of my medical career. On its merits, as a positive, safe, and effectual remedy for this class of diseases, and one that will, at all times and under all circumstances, act kindly and in harof diseases, and one that will, at all times and under all circumstances, act kindly and in harmony with the laws which govern the female system, I am willing to stake my reputation as a physician. Nay, even more, so confident am I that it will not disappoint the most sanguing expectations of a single invalid lady who uses it for any of the aliments for which I recommend it, that I offer and sell it under A POSITIVE GUARANTEE. If a beneficial effect is not experienced by the time two-thirds of the ontents of the bottle are used, I will, on return of the bottle, two-thirds of the medicine having been taken according to directions, and the case been taken according to surrections, and the case teing one for which I recommend it, promptly setund the money paid for it. Had I not the most perfect confidence in its virtues, I could not offer it as I do under these conditions; but having witnessed its truly miraculsus cures in thou-annis of cases, I feel warranted and perfectly safe in risking both my reputation and my money on its merits.

The following are among those diseases in which my Favorite Prescription has worked cures, as if by magic, and with a certainty never before attained by any meeting in Lencorrhom. Excassive Flowing, Painting Monthly Periods, Suppressions when from annatural causes, Irregularities, Weak Back, Proliapsus, or falling of the Uterus, Anteversion and Retroversion, Bearing Down Sensations, Internal Heat, Nervous Depression, Debility, Despondency, Threatened Miscarriage, Chunio Congestion, Inflammation and Ulceration of the Uterus, Impotency, Barrenness, or Sterility, Female Weakness, and very sany other chronic diseases incident to woman not mentioned here. In all affections of this nature, my Favorite Prescription works cures—the marvel of the world. This medicine I do not extol as a cure-all, but it admirably fulfills a single-ness of purpose, being a most perfect specific in all chronic diseases of the extual system of woman. It will not disappoint, nor will it do happ, in any state or condition.

Those who desire further information on these subsets can abuse it. Thus These Those who desire further information on these subjects can obtain it in The Prople's Common Sense Medical Advises, a book of over 500 pages, sent, post-paid, on receipi of $1.50. It treats minutely of those diseases peculiar to Feunlaes, and gives much valuable advice in regard to the management of those affections.

NATURAL SELECTION.

Investigators of natural science have demonstrated beyond controversy, that throughout the animal kingdom the "survival of the figurest" is the only law that vouchsufes thrift and perpetuity. Does not the same principle govers the commercial prosperity of man? An interior cannot supercede a superior article. By reason of superior merit, Dr. l'ierce's Standard Medicines have outrivaled all others. Their sale in the United States alone exceeds one million dollars per annum, while the amount exported foots up to several hundred thousand more. No beatness could grow to such gig:notic proportions and rest upon any other basis than that of merit.
